

John Stephens

John has been in the Insurance and Risk Management industry for over 20 years. John began his career with one of the largest insurance brokers in the U.S. as part of their National College Internship Program and has worked with Keenan, the largest privately held insurance brokerage firm in California and 17th largest brokerage firm in the world since 1998. Keenan is a niche broker, JPA Manager and Claims Administrator that works exclusively with California Public Agencies, Hospitals and Joint Powers Authorities.

John is a Senior Vice President and oversees the Property & Casualty Public Agency Practice which includes approximately 600 California Public Agencies and 40 Joint Powers Authorities.

John has hosted several Risk Management Symposiums and has been a featured speaker for several public agency organizations, including

- Public Agency Risk Managers Association (PARMA)
- California Association for Joint Powers Authorities (CAJPA)
- California Association for School Business Officials (CASBO)
- California Coalition on Workers Compensation (CCWC)
- California School Board Association (CSBA)
- Association for Chief Business Officials (ACBO)
- Community College Internal Auditors (CCIA)
- Statewide Association for Community Colleges (SWACC)
- Southern California ReLiEF (So Cal ReLiEF)
- Northern California ReLiEF (Nor Cal ReLiEF)
- Schools Alliance for Excess Risk (SAFER)

John graduated from California Lutheran University, is an avid athlete and has been married to his wife Julie for 14 years and has three daughters.